HOMICIDE DIVISION

OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM

---

TO: Lead Investigator, Homicide Division
FROM: Chief Inspector
DATE: December 1, 1986
SUBJECT: Welcome to the Meat Grinder/Standard Operating Procedure

---

Listen up, rookie. Welcome to Bayside Precinct 9. I know you just transferred in, but we don't have time to hold your hand or ease you into the rotation. It's December in Fair-ground County, the snow is piling up, and the homicide rate is through the roof.

The desk sergeant just dropped 130 unsolved case files on your desk. I need them closed yesterday.

Here is your Standard Operating Procedure for processing a Bayside crime scene. Read it twice.

[ 1 ] SEARCH THE SCENES

Every cold case dossier hides four distinct scenes. Buried in the noise are six pieces of evidence and six suspects. Grab your pen and hunt them all down. Keep your eyes peeled, these perpetrators move around. Every suspect is hiding in two different scenes, meaning each name turns up twice.

[ 2 ] LOCATE THE MURDER WEAPON

The killers in this city are sloppy, and they always leave a trace. Pay close attention: exactly one piece of evidence shows up in TWO different scenes instead of one. That repeated object is your murder weapon.

[ 3 ] CORNER THE KILLER

Now that you have the weapon, look at the two specific scenes where you found it. Cross-reference your Rolodex of suspects. Only one perp was totally bogus enough to show their face in both of those weapon locations. Slap the cuffs on them, that is your killer.

[ 4 ] DECODE THE VICTIM

You can't close a homicide if you don't know who is in the body bag. The crime scene boys have circled certain letters across the grids. Ignore any circle that lands inside a suspect or evidence word you already found. Take the leftover circled letters and unscramble them to reveal the victim's name.

[ 5 ] PINPOINT THE LOCATION

Once you decode who the victim is, you need to find where the body dropped. Now that you have an ID, you need to find where the body dropped. Hunt for the victim's name hidden within the puzzle. The specific scene where their name appears is exactly where the crime took place.

[ 6 ] THE "12 DAYS" HOLIDAY SYNDICATE

We have a bigger problem than run-of-the-mill street crime. There's a serial psycho operating in the shadows, hitting 12 specific locations across the city mimicking that old "12 Days of Christmas" carol. The homicide squad is completely swamped, and the Medical Examiner is running out of freezer space in the morgue.

When you hit one of those 12 specific seasonal crime scenes, flip to the official Master Decoder at the back of this file. Log the FIRST LETTER of the Murder Weapon from that specific scene. We need to crack that cipher and find out who this maniac is before Christmas morning.

WORK THE STEPS IN ORDER. THE EVIDENCE NEVER LIES.

Grab a cup of black coffee and get to work. The syndicate won't catch itself.

Chief Inspector

CONFIDENTIAL: TASK FORCE DEBRIEFING
BAYSIDE PRECINCT 9 • RECORDS DIVISION
INTERNAL MEMO

---

TO: Lead Detective, Homicide Squad
FROM: Records Division Supervisor
DATE: December 24, 1986
SUBJECT: Case Closure Logging & Intelligence Cross-Referencing

---

Detective, if you are reading this, it means you survived the meat grinder. You cleared the backlog, but the paperwork isn't finished until the ink dries.

You are now entering the Precinct Records Division. This is where we track the pulse of the city and figure out exactly who is pulling the strings.

1. THE CONFIRMED KILLS LEDGER

For every case you closed in the main file, you must log the killer's alias on the ledger pages that follow. We need a strict, by-the-book accounting of who is putting bodies in the snow this winter.

2. PERSONS OF INTEREST DOSSIER

Once you tally your total arrests across all one hundred and thirty cases, cross-reference your most frequent offenders with the Top 10 Persons of Interest dossier at the back of this file. We need to know which of these heavy hitters is officially running the streets this season.

3. REDACTED FILES

A warning when checking your final case solutions: The evidence for the twelve "Holiday Syndicate" cases is classified as an ongoing, active investigation. The murder weapons for those specific crime scenes have been strictly [ REDACTED ] from the standard solution files. You will not find those answers here. You must find the weapons yourself to crack the Chief Inspector's master cipher.

Log your arrests. File the paperwork. Close the book.

BAYSIDE PRECINCT 9 • CONFIRMED KILLS LEDGER

Log the confirmed killer from each closed case file on the lines below. Once all one hundred and thirty files are closed, tally your highest offenders and cross-reference them with the official Persons of Interest dossier.

APPENDIX A: MOST WANTED

[ FILE #01-OWN ] • ALIAS: THE OWNER

PROFILE: Deep pockets and zero patience for law enforcement. Views the precinct as a nuisance that hurts winter holiday profits.

NOTES: Has a history of covering up "incidents" on their properties to keep the tourists coming. Employs aggressive private security to handle problems off the books. Rumored ties to the "12 Days" syndicate.

RED FLAG: Unusually calm and dismissive when shown the crime scene photos of the snow-covered body.

CONFIRMED KILLS: [ 10 ]

[ FILE #02-CLK ] • ALIAS: THE CLERK

PROFILE: Graveyard shift worker. Survives the freezing nights on black coffee, stale cigarettes, and apathy.

NOTES: Sees absolutely everyone who comes in from the cold to get warm, but conveniently "forgets" who was on the floor during the homicide. Easily bribed to look the other way.

RED FLAG: The visitor logbook for the night of the blizzard is missing exactly twenty-one pages.

CONFIRMED KILLS: [ 10 ]

[ FILE #03-GST ] • ALIAS: THE GUEST

PROFILE: Out-of-towner stranded by the December weather. Demanding, entitled, and traveling suspiciously light for the winter.

NOTES: Checked in under an assumed name. Claims they were dead asleep during the incident, but neighbors reported hearing a violent struggle over the howling wind.

RED FLAG: Had their bags completely packed and was heading for the icy fire escape before the cops even locked down the building.

CONFIRMED KILLS: [ 10 ]

[ FILE #04-NBR ] • ALIAS: THE NEIGHBOR

PROFILE: Chronic curtain-twitcher with binoculars and a major grudge, trapped inside by the heavy snowstorms.

NOTES: Obsessively logs local foot traffic through their frosted windows. Filed dozens of bogus complaints against the victim over a bitter property line dispute.

RED FLAG: Caught dumping a heavy, leaking trash bag into a deep snowbank in the alley at 0300 hours (claimed it was "spoiled meat").

CONFIRMED KILLS: [ 10 ]

[ FILE #05-VND ] • ALIAS: THE VENDOR

PROFILE: Street-level hustler slinging cheap goods in the freezing cold. Highly territorial of their patch of icy sidewalk.

NOTES: Operates without a permit. Sees the exterior foot traffic that the inside staff completely misses. Harbors a bitter, long-standing grudge against the victim.

RED FLAG: Attempted to conceal a heavy, blunt object covered in frozen blood under their cart when the squad cars pulled up.

CONFIRMED KILLS: [ 05 ]

BAYSIDE PRECINCT 9 • INTERNAL INTELLIGENCE

[ FILE #06-CSN ] • ALIAS: THE COUSIN

PROFILE: Blood relative with a massive chip on their shoulder and a hand constantly in the victim's pockets.

NOTES: Arrived in town unannounced for the holidays. Known to harbor deep, violent resentment over a disputed family inheritance. Claims they were "just visiting," but brought no luggage.

RED FLAG: Caught trying to forge the victim's signature on a bank transfer document just hours after the estimated time of death.

CONFIRMED KILLS: [ 08 ]

[ FILE #07-RVL ] • ALIAS: THE RIVAL

PROFILE: Cutthroat competitor who profits directly and immediately from the victim's sudden demise.

NOTES: Operates a competing syndicate across the street. Has a documented history of aggressive intimidation tactics, vandalism, and sabotage during the busy winter season.

RED FLAG: A patrol officer witnessed them actively toasting with a glass of champagne the exact moment the squad cars pulled up to the crime scene.

CONFIRMED KILLS: [ 05 ]

[ FILE #08-CLR ] • ALIAS: THE CAROLER

PROFILE: Transient street performer using the loud, festive holiday cheer as a perfect cover for casing properties.

NOTES: Travels door-to-door through affluent, snowed-in neighborhoods. Uses a booming baritone voice and a brass bell to successfully mask the sound of breaking glass and forced entry.

RED FLAG: Found with a meticulously detailed, hand-drawn map of the victim's home security blind spots stuffed inside their seasonal sheet music.

CONFIRMED KILLS: [ 04 ]

[ FILE #09-GDE ] • ALIAS: THE GUIDE

PROFILE: Local navigator who knows the freezing Bayside backwoods and industrial alleyways much better than the police do.

NOTES: Hired to lead wealthy out-of-towners through the winter terrain. Suspected of intentionally leading clients into isolated, frozen ambush points off the grid.

RED FLAG: Possesses a stolen set of master keys to the restricted, underground steam tunnels running directly beneath the primary crime scene.

CONFIRMED KILLS: [ 04 ]

[ FILE #10-SNT ] • ALIAS: THE SANTA

PROFILE: Seasonal worker hiding in plain sight behind a cheap, synthetic beard and a padded velvet suit.

NOTES: Smells strongly of stale peppermint schnapps and cheap tobacco. Expertly uses the anonymity of the red costume to slip past security checkpoints and VIP rooms completely unchallenged.

RED FLAG: The heavy velvet sack they were carrying off the premises was stained with fresh, dark crimson on the bottom canvas.

CONFIRMED KILLS: [ 04 ]
